POET’S CORNER

Dream
The wind is blowing silently through the night as you sleep
Dreams flowing through your head as you lay in your bed
For the wind will carry hopes, your dreams last.
In the night sky clouds flying by
One is blue, one is red, one that looks like you
But no one can see the same as your dream
About love and caring but not the nightmares above the dreamland
As you play in the sand on the imaginary beach while sun sets.
Brodie Hughes - Year 5

POET’S CORNER

SHOP BURST
The wind blowing the red dirt at midnight
The rain hitting the colour bond roof
And the thunder hit the road
All the houses shook then suddenly a shop window shattered
All the drinks busted all the chips popped And the slushy machine smashed
Bang.... Crush .... Crash ....
By Matthew Dawe - Year 6
